Description / Report on Event : All I/IV B.Tech students were familiarized with the vision and mission of the ICC-Saheli Girls Club. The students attended awareness sessions outlining the role of the Internal Complaints Committee (ICC) in ensuring the safety and security of female students and staff across the campus. Furthermore, they were introduced to the activities of the Saheli Club an initiative dedicated to empowering female students—and met the designated ICC-Saheli Club coordinators. To encourage active engagement, Department Student Coordinators continue to motivate and guide first-year students by organizing gender equality-focused events, such as debates and elocution competitions.

Feedback / Suggestions : Most of the students said that it is useful
