Brief Report

As part of the calendar of activities of Birth Anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi, LBRCE NSS Unit along with HODs and Deans graced the occasion. Principal Dr K.Appa Rao expressed that Gandhiji had played an instrumental role in helping India to attain independence from the 'British Raj', his principle of non-violence still continues to influence leaders across the world. He also reminded us of the day being observed as the "International Day of Non-Violence" by the United Nations. Dr. B Siva Hari Prasad, NSS Program Officer addressed the gathering about quotes from Gandhiji and Life of Gandhi movements like Satyagraha and Dandi march which helped India in getting independence. NSS Programme Officer, Dr. B Siva Hari Prasad coordinated this event along with NYK District Officers, S. Ramu and B. Vinod Kumar, all department NSS in charges. Along with institutions water bodies and public places like markets and bus stands was cleaned by our volunteers along with NYK coordinator.
